

TRAFALGAR PARK ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

THINGS YOU CAN BRING WITH YOU

There are some things that you are welcome to bring into the venue when you attend an event provided that their presence or use doesn't interfere with the event or disturb other visitors' enjoyment of the event. You can bring:

- Personal effects such as a coat or small bag as long as they can be easily stored under your seat or carried by you when not in use
- A mobile phone, personal camera or electronic device
- A disability assist dog
- An empty drinking container no larger than 1 litre which can be filled at one of the water taps in the venue
- Home-made food for personal consumption, such as sandwiches, fruit, biscuits or cake that is not in commercial packaging

THINGS YOU CAN'T BRING WITH YOU

For everyone's safety and enjoyment there are some things you may not bring with you. We also have commercial partnerships that we need to protect.

Please leave the following restricted items behind when attending events as you may be required to surrender them as a condition of entry to the event or the venue. We are unable to provide storage and surrendered items may not be returned. You can't bring:

- Alcohol
- Commercially produced food and drinks
- Glass containers, cans or thermos flasks
- Sound devices that are considered by venue management to be a nuisance, including air horns, drums and whistles
- Bicycles, skateboards, roller blades, skates or scooters
